DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to the communication 06/17/2009. Claims 1 – 36 are currently pending. Claims 1 – 23 were cancelled. Claims 24 – 36 have been examined.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, in view of amendments to the claims, have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the 35 USC 101 rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of obviousness-type double patenting rejection. Additionally, Examiner concurs with the (previous) Examiner Okoronkwo with respect to indicated allowable subject matter along with the reasons for allowance and directs the Applicant's attention to item #4 of this office action.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 24 – 36 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over

Art Unit: 2436

- a. claims 1 – 7 and 18 – 28 of copending application 11/114,509,
- b. claims 1 – 6 and 17 – 23 of copending application 11/139,947,
- c. claims 11 – 20 of copending application 11/273,775,
- d. claims 1 – 22 of Patent 7,379,918.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because

- "A computer system comprising: a processing unit; and a memory; the processing unit executing first code defining a first process operating on the computer, the first code executing on the processing unit implementing at least one triggering device; the memory holding a digital license corresponding to the first process, the license setting forth terms and conditions for operating the first process; and the processing unit executing second code defining a second process operating on the computer for proxy-executing code corresponding to each triggering device of the first process on behalf of such first process, the second process including a license evaluator for evaluating the license to determine whether the first process is to be operated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in such license, the second process choosing whether to in fact proxy-execute the code corresponding to each triggering device of the first process on behalf of such first process based at least in part on whether the license evaluator has determined that the first process is to be operated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the license, whereby the first process is dependent upon the second process for operation thereof" (claim 24, instant application) is analogous to or an obvious variation of:

The claims of the copending applications and of the patent contain every element of claims 24 – 36 of the instant application and thus anticipate the claims of the instant application. Claims 24 – 36 of the instant application therefore are not patently distinct from the copending application claims and as such are unpatentable for obvious-type double patenting. A later patent/application claim is not patentably distinct from an earlier claim if the later claim is anticipated by the earlier claim. Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claims of the instant application are anticipated by patent claims in that the patent claims contains all the limitations of the instant application. Claims of the instant application therefore is not patentably distinct from the earlier patent claims and as such are unpatentable for obvious-type double patenting (In re Goodman (CAFC) 29 USPQ2d 2010 (12/3/1993).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 24 – 36 are allowed over prior art.

Examiner requests filing the Terminal Disclaimer to overcome the obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
